Site of the Semester

- RTC Roundtable of Toxicology Consultants
  (The Roundtable of Toxicology Consultant is a professional association committed to providing the highest quality independent expertise in all areas of toxicology. Developed by our old friend John Lehmann. Our readers will fondly remember his Drug Intel site which we recommended in our Vol 3, No 2 [July - December 2002] issue.)

Highly Recommended Links

- UK FireSkills Ltd
  (A very useful site developed by John Williamson. John retired as assistant chief fire officer in January 2004 after serving for almost 37 years in both England and Scotland. His site now provides wide-ranging fire related services including the investigation of cause and origin of fires.)
