Tenth Annual Workshop on Forensic Entomology (22 May 2002 to 24 May 2002)

The Tenth Annual Workshop on Forensic Entomology will be held by the Entomology Department at The Pennsylvania State University. The workshop is led by Dr. K.C. Kim, Board Certified Forensic Entomologist, and runs from Wednesday, 22 May 2002, to Friday, 24 May 2002. This course is designed for forensic investigators working for law-enforcement agencies, including state police, municipal police, forensic pathologists, and coroners. The course has been approved by the State Board of Coroners and covers the principles of forensic entomology, the ecology of necrophagous arthropod communities, and forensic entomological analysis.

Do you know of a future forensic conference which doesn't appear in this page? Well, why don't you tell us and we would be glad to put the relevant information on our pages. If the conference has a site, let us know of the site address, and we would place a link to that site. In some exceptional cases, we also host the photograph of the Organizing Secretary.

Yes, I would like to tell you about a conference
