W*e keep receiving books for review from various publishers. However some books are of such paramount importance that we at the journal office thought one review may not be able to do justice to that book. One opinion may be slanted, perhaps by the individual tastes and preferences of the reviewer. Reviewers from different continents, nations, even different parts of the same nation may perceive a book differently. Why not send books to two or more different reviewers and get their opinion. We requested several authors/publishers to do that and they gladly obliged.*

In our sister publication "Anil Aggrawal's Internet Journal of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology", we have been featuring books for quite some time now. However in THIS journal, we started featuring books (reviews from multiple experts) only from Vol. 1, No. 2 (July - December 2002). We hope to continue featuring books in our subsequent editions.

Taking the lead from our sister publication, from the second issue we started reviews of certain books of paramount importance as "featured books". The first book to be featured on our journal was The Second Highest World War - The Rama Theatre by Anoop Chandola (Published by Authors Choice Press, an imprint of iUniverse, Inc.), which was published in Vol. 1, No. 2 (July - December 2002) of this journal. If readers' reactions, and emails are any indication, this feature was a tremendous success.

In Volume 2, Number 1 (January - June 2003), we featured Eternal Treblinka written by Charles Patterson, which proved to be an all time hit. It was reviewed by as many as 11 reviewers from 8 different countries and 5 different continents.

In the last issue (Volume 2, Number 2, July - December 2003), we featured Silver Creek written by A.H.Holt, which proved to be an all time hit. It was reviewed by 3 reviewers from 3 different countries (all different continents).

This time we received yet another remarkable book Marriage Intimacy: New Approaches. It is a very bold sex education book by an 86 year old writer Gopal Krishna (who incidentally claims he is still sexually very active!). We at the journal office sent the book to three different reviewers around the world spanning three continents. The reviewers were not only requested to send us detailed reviews, but were asked to rate this book on a scale of ten. The following rating scale was provided to the reviewers.

0: Waste of time
1: Of minimal interest
2: Of little interest
3: Of some interest
4: Slightly below average
5: Average
6: Slightly above average
7: Good
8: Very Good
9: Excellent
10: Truly Outstanding

Here is a detailed break-up of our reviewers and the ratings they gave this book.
