Eleventh Annual Workshop on Forensic Entomology (from Wednesday, 21 May 2003, to Friday, 23 May 2003 by the Entomology Department at The Pennsylvania State University)

The Entomology Department at The Pennsylvania State University will be conducting the Eleventh Annual Workshop on Forensic Entomology. The workshop is led by Dr. Ke Chung Kim, Board Certified Forensic Entomologist, and runs from Wednesday, 21 May 2003, to Friday, 23 May 2003. This course is designed for forensic investigators working for law-enforcement agencies, including state police, municipal police, forensic pathologists, and coroners. The course has been approved by the State Board of Coroners and covers the principles of forensic entomology, the ecology of necrophagous arthropod communities, and forensic entomological analysis.
