We keep receiving books for review from various publishers. However some books are of such paramount importance that we at the journal office thought one review may not be able to do justice to that book. One opinion may be slanted, perhaps by the individual tastes and preferences of the reviewer. Reviewers from different continents, nations, even different parts of the same nation may perceive a book differently. Why not send books to two or more different reviewers and get their opinion. We requested several publishers to do that and they obliged.

From Volume 3, Number 1, January - June 2002, we started reviews of certains books of paramount importance as "featured books". The first book to be featured on our journal was Ecotoxicology: The Study of Pollutants in Ecosystems by F. Moriarty (Published by Academic Press). Review of that book, as well as the combined index of reviews of all featured books can be accessed by clicking here. We have so far featured twenty six books including the current one. The response of the readers has been overwhelming. They seem to have liked this new genre, and they want more reviews in this format. This is the first book we are featuring in this issue (Vol 8, No 1). To see all books which have been featured in this journal so far, readers may want to the linked page (featured 001).

This time we sent Forensic Sculpting Step-By-Step in Photographs by Seth Wolfson (Published by Realsculpt Press), to as many as nine reviewers from 5 different continents and 6 countries. Of these four were from India, one each from Argentina, Nigeria, Singapore, UK and USA. All of them are leading lights in their subjects and are widely respected all over the world.

The reviewers were requested not only to send us detailed reviews, but also to rate this book on a scale of ten. The following rating scale was provided to the reviewers.

0: Waste of time
1: Of minimal interest
2: Of little interest
3: Of some interest

4: Slightly below average
5: Average
